

Terms and conditions for new members

When requesting and receiving driving tuition:

1. You are deemed to be in control of your vehicle at all times and responsible for your own actions when driving.
2. If your tutor gives you an instruction, which you feel is unsafe for you to carry out, you must ignore it and do what you believe to be safe.
3. You must hold a full UK driver licence and a valid vehicle insurance certificate for the vehicle you will be using. Your vehicle must have paid the appropriate Vehicle Excise Duty (vehicle tax) and, if applicable, have an up to date MOT certificate. Your tutor will need to check these documents prior to any on-road training.
4. You must also produce a valid printout of your driving record from the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/view-driving-licence>

or

Provide us with check code which can be generated at the website above or by telephoning the DVLA on 0300 083 0013. This is a unique code, which is valid for 21 days and will give us access to your driving record.

5. Your eyesight must meet the minimum requirements of the Driving and Vehicle Standards Agency.
6. Your vehicle must be roadworthy.

The Training Officer or Tutor reserves the right to stop your tuition if:

- a) Your driving is deemed to be dangerous.
- b) You lack the time to study, practice and meet with the tutor frequently enough to be able to make reasonable progress with your training.
- c) You fail to display the temperament necessary to proceed with the practical training.

I understand and agree to adhere to the terms and conditions herein.
